

Calvinita Malone

Calvinita (Candy) Malone was born in Chicago II, and is the third of six siblings. She accepted Jesus as Savior in October 1983 and joined New Progressive M.B.C., in Chicago, Illinois. She currently serves as the Director of Christian Education, a Sunday School teacher for the new members class, an assistant group leader for the young adult bible study and a mentor for young ladies in the church's "Adopt A College Student" program. Ms. Candy's passion is inspiring young ladies to celebrate and appreciate their uniqueness and oneness with God. This is accomplished through Pajama Praise mentoring, esteem building workshops, events and activities. In her full-time career, she volunteers as a company mentor to assist employees with career goals and choices.

While serving as the overseer of Pajama Praise, Candy's passion is also serving and volunteering with other non-profit organizations. She has served as a Board member or volunteer with Feed-A-Neighbor (F.A.N.), The Heart Organization, Bolingbrook IL, Connecting our Roots, Toastmasters International, The Chicago Food Depository, Rebuilding the Foundation (RTF) and Hunger Walk and the Young Community Center (YCC) planning committee. She loves Giving, Sharing, Writing, Cooking, Entertaining and Laughing. She is also the most favorite aunt of her one and only niece Christina (Crissy Girl), nephews, Calvin (Mookie), Calvin Jr. (Tooie) and Ernest Ford (Ernie).

A favorite scripture is John 10:27 "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:"
